

The Collaborating Centre for Values-based Practice in Health and Social Care

St Catherine's College, Oxford

Dear colleague,

You are invited by Ms Jay Bradbury, Mr Bruce George and Prof. Ashok Handa to attend:

A surgical seminar in values-based practice in the field of Colorectal Surgery

This will be an exciting evening of discussion and debate, bringing together the ideas and experiences from doctors, nurses, allied health care professionals, patients and students.

The aim of the evening is to share clinical experiences and explore individuals' values. This should enable attendees to improve their communication skills with patients, ensuring that their future interactions are both evidence and values based.

Date: Tuesday 10th November, 2015

Time: 17:00 - 19:30

Venue: St. Catherine's College, Oxford

Refreshments and all necessary equipment will be provided

Please confirm attendance by reply.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Kind regards,

Ms Jay Bradbury

*Senior Nurse/Advanced Nurse Practitioner
Colorectal Nursing Team, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust*

Mr Bruce George

Consultant General and Colorectal Surgeon, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust Honorary Senior Clinical Lecturer, University of Oxford

Prof. Ashok Handa

*Associate Professor of Surgery and Consultant Vascular Surgeon, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust
Clinical Tutor in Surgery and Associate Director of Clinical Studies, University of Oxford*