

'Practical Handbooks for Mental Health'

Editors: Dr Roz Austin and Assistant Professor Mark Hopfenbeck

The Practical Handbook of Hearing Voices: a Development Workshop
(Due to be published by PCCS Books on 23rd July 2020.)

Hope Baptist Church, New Road, Hebden Bridge, HX7 8EW
Wednesday 11th March 2020. 10 am – 4 pm

Presenters will include:

Dr Roz Austin and Assistant Professor Mark Hopfenbeck (Editors of 'Practical Handbook of Mental Health'). 'Developing online resources from the Practical Handbooks for Mental Health'.

Assistant Professor Mark Hopfenbeck. 'Dialogue, values and voices in the creation of the Practical Handbooks for Mental Health'.

Authors who wrote chapters for 'The practical handbook of hearing voices' will have the option to undertake short interviews, that will be recorded for the 'Values Based Practice' website (St Catherine's College, Oxford University).

Service-users – a suggested donation of £5. Delegates – £15 per ticket. If you would like to attend, please email Roz – rozaustin2017@gmail.com

A sandwich lunch will be provided in Hope Baptist Church.